1. This week provides guidance on how deploy machine learning solutions in a production environment with another cloud platform: Azure ML.

   Microsoft Azure has a wealth of free resources available to continue your MLOps journey. To get started, check out the following tutorial in a new tab: Azure Machine Learning in Day ↗.

   Once you have a chance to work through the tutorial, come back here and let us know how it went.

   1 / 1 point

   ◉ The tutorial provided was a great way for me to get onboarded with Azure ML.

   ◯ The tutorial provided was useful in getting onboarded with Azure ML, but I would prefer another resource (i.e., video, walk-through, etc.).

   ◯ The tutorial provided was not helpful for me to get onboarded with Azure ML.
